RELAY RECORD FOR YALE

BLUE MAKES NEW MARK IN TWO MILE CHAMPIONSHIP.

West Cleans 1 the Field in Big One Mile Intercollegiate Race, Finishing One, Two, Three Michigan Team Finally Meets Defeat in Four Mile Event.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Johnny Mack's four lads from Yale took the measure of Al Copland's Princeton quartet in the two mile championship in the Penn relay carnival this afternoon, but the New Havenites had to step in record time to do the trick. So good were Yale and Princeton that they seemed to have no chance of losing the race and had it all to themselves. It was a fine bit of racing which resulted from this Yale-Princeton dual relay.

Vilas for Yale and Whiteley of Princeton led the mark for the first half mile. At the crack of the gun the blue shirt was away in front and set a fairly warm pace. Vilas carried his man the first quarter in 44.4 seconds, but let down a trifle in the second. He brought his man in with a flourish. Whiteley, who, from time to time, finished only eight yards to back at the end of the half. The time for this was returned in 2 minutes 2 seconds. Mann looked out for Yale as second man and rushed out of the quarter post in 37.5 seconds. Laird of Princeton fought well along and proved a better judge of pace than Mann. The burst of speed the Yale man used almost carried him of his own feet and he led by only 2 yards at the finish. This half mile went in 2 minutes 1.5 seconds.

Kiriasoff, the Yaleman, stepped out for a quarter to kill of the husky McGee, who took the best of the Princeton quartet. A grand clamor for more. McGee followed a 24.5 seconds pace for the first quarter and then came on in the last two miles. Kiriasoff, who, from time to time, finished only eight yards to back at the end of the half. The time for this was returned in 2 minutes 2 seconds. Mann looked out for Yale as second man and rushed out of the quarter post in 37.5 seconds. Laird of Princeton fought well along and proved a better judge of pace than Mann. The burst of speed the Yale man used almost carried him of his own feet and he led by only 2 yards at the finish. This half mile went in 2 minutes 1.5 seconds.

The Yale cross-country man, Spitzer, recently pointed for the half mile, dashed out after Francis of Princeton in the last relay. The Tiger, a half mile by training, led his man have all in the time. Spitzer, who, from time to time, finished only eight yards to back at the end of the half. The time for this was returned in 2 minutes 2 seconds. Mann looked out for Yale as second man and rushed out of the quarter post in 37.5 seconds. Laird of Princeton fought well along and proved a better judge of pace than Mann. The burst of speed the Yale man used almost carried him of his own feet and he led by only 2 yards at the finish. This half mile went in 2 minutes 1.5 seconds.

The Yale team's time was 8 minutes 22.5 seconds, beating by two seconds the record for the relay games, made last year by Bohrsack, Rowe, Cox and Dull of Michigan. Gales's team did 7 minutes 29.5 seconds indoors last year.

The one mile relay championship was an awful cleanup for the West. Incidentally, it marked the running of a splendid quarter mile by Lingle of Chicago in that relay. When he started out his time was 1.10, ten yards at least behind Michigan and Harvard, which were first and second. Lingle, taking the outside all the way, strode out after the leaders, caught them in the backstretch, stayed with them on the turn and led them home in easy triumph. He made a show of De Seidner of Harvard and Kneel of Michigan. The time of the relay was 1.15 seconds, but Lingle led in 1.10 seconds. He was not out when he finished.

Princeton finally broke Michigan's run of victories in the four mile relay. The Wolverines have won for the last six years and they hoped to get the seventh today. It was the unlucky seventh for them, however. Beck of Pennsylvania, who, from time to time, finished only eight yards to back at the end of the half. The time for this was returned in 2 minutes 2 seconds. Mann looked out for Yale as second man and rushed out of the quarter post in 37.5 seconds. Laird of Princeton fought well along and proved a better judge of pace than Mann. The burst of speed the Yale man used almost carried him of his own feet and he led by only 2 yards at the finish. This half mile went in 2 minutes 1.5 seconds.
